

52nd Annual Seabeck Conference

"Visioning the Confluence of Justice & Peace"

Friday July 2 (late afternoon) through Monday July 5 (early afternoon), 2010

The Fellowship Reconciliation, a 95 year-old peace organization, hosts this interactive conference at the historic Seabeck Conference Center on beautiful Hood Canal in Kitsap County.

Enjoy, twenty-one interactive, lively workshops in a natural setting!

Enjoy connecting with 200 peace & justice folks of all ages!

Enjoy music and much more!

Keynote Speakers:

Jo Ann Bowman is a civil right activist, former three-term Oregon state legislator, radio talk show host, and lifelong community organizer. Jo Ann was most recently the Executive Director of Oregon Action, a statewide organization committed to voter registration, political organizing, and direct action. Her keynote will focus on the everyday small acts that people can take each day to stand up for a peaceful and just community.

Shauen V. T. Pearce is the Convener of the Program Team of the national Fellowship of Reconciliation. Shauen is a Chicago born and raised Afro-American artist, educator and conscientious objector with a background in justice based active nonviolence. She oversees the Program Department's work and direction including national campaigns, resources, services, and support of local groups.
