February 2011

Dear friend of the Olympia FOR,

You already know that the Olympia Fellowship of Reconciliation works for peace, social justice and nonviolence in many ways. We actively seize opportunities that come along – and some of these incur expenses that we had not anticipated. EXAMPLES:

- We have energetically plunged into the Western Washington FOR's "Bring Our Billion$ Home" campaign with a growing number of volunteers, a wide variety of activities, and unforeseen expenses.
- With Doug Mackey's leadership and organizing skills, the Olympia FOR is one of a few global hubs for frequent conversations with young peace-oriented people in Afghanistan and peace folks all over the world. While some computer hook-ups are free, we are contributing to some of the necessary long-distance phone costs.
- We are increasing outreach and visibility for our powerful newsletter (one of the largest and most comprehensive of any peace group the Pacific Northwest) and our TV program.

If you like what the Olympia FOR is doing, we warmly encourage you to support our work.

Instead of charging dues, the Olympia FOR relies entirely on volunteer labor and voluntary contributions. We trust each person to help in whatever ways they can. This year's contributions have been less than what we need to cover our expenses, so please be extra generous if you can.

Contributions to Olympia FOR are tax-deductible as allowed by law. Some donors spread their gifts into quarterly or monthly pledges order to achieve a more generous yearly total.

Thanks to everyone for helping the Olympia FOR build a new culture of social justice, nonviolence and peace!

Sincerely, The Olympia FOR Steering Committee:

*Alice Zillah (Co-Chair), Berd Whitlock (Co-Chair),
Kim Dobson, Dennis Mills, Kerri Griffis, Beth Rodman,
Muhammad Ayub, Chris Carson, Kristen Dahle, Vale Core,
Jody Mackey, Doug Mackey, Glen Anderson, Rozanne Rants*
